

Allowing a few big corporations to control the airwaves is absolutely anti-democratic. It's no better than State-control. Democracy thrives on differences of opinion, freely expressed. Clear Channel so-called news is nothing more than cheerleading for its own political agenda and the Republican party. I'm angry and disgusted by this FCC action. It undermines our great American democratic society.